

Macros for Creative Common Licences in L^AT_EX

Joachim Thiemann and Peter Kabal

March 24, 2011

This package provides commands to place Creative Commons licence information for works created using the L^AT_EX typesetting system. Note that this package itself is licensed under the CC-BY license. Licence manifests are reproduced here only as examples.

To use these commands add the line

```
\usepackage{CreativeCommons}

to the preamble of your document. Then simply use the commands shown at the top of each of the following lines to place the licence deed into your document. Typically, this would be the second page of the document, on the back side of the title page for double-sided printing.

Version 1.0, 23 March 2011.
